

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Jule Street to the intersection of Jule and Twelfth Streets, thence south along the center of Twelfth Street to its intersection with Lafayette Street, thence west along the center of Lafayette Street to the Missouri River bank, thence north with the river bank to the center of Main Street, thence north along the center of Main Street to the place of beginning.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person hereafter to build, make, maintain, dig, use, or permit to be used any privy vault or cesspool upon any land fronting, abutting upon, or adjacent to any street or alley in and along which a city sewer has been constructed, and where city water can be used, within the boundaries fixed by section 1 of this ordinance, and no person shall make or use or cause to made or permit to be used or maintain any privy within said district and under said conditions unless the same is what is commonly known as an inside water-closet and connected with the city sewers and furnished with water for flushing and clearing the same.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of all owners or occupiers of property within the limits and conditions prescribed in section 1 of this ordinance, or their agents, within 60 days after the passage and approval of this ordinance, to remove from their premises the contents of all privy vaults and to abandon the use of such privy vaults, all to be done under the supervision of the board of health.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the sanitary inspectors to see that the provisions of this ordinance are enforced.

SEC. 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, or failing to comply with any of the provisions thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $200.

ST. PAUL, MINN.

Berries, etc.—Refilling of Boxes or Other Containers Prohibited. (Ord. Aug. 28, 1912.)

SECTION 1. It shall be, and is hereby, declared to be unlawful for any person, persons, firm, or corporation within the corporate limits of the city of St. Paul to repack or refill with strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, currants, or with any other fragile fruit for purposes of sale any boxes, cartons, or other containers in which such berries or other fragile fruit have previously been put up, kept, or contained, unless such boxes, packages, cartons, or containers are thoroughly cleansed and made wholesome and sanitary.

SEC. 2. It shall be, and is hereby, declared to be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation within the corporate limits of the city of St. Paul to refill or repack with any of the aforesaid berries or other fragile fruit for purposes of sale any boxes, cartons, packages, or other containers which have been previously used for holding fruit and which are afterwards allowed to lie around in the streets, sidewalks, alleys, or other places exposed to dust, dirt, or the elements.

SEC. 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined in a sum of not less than $10 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for a period of not more than 90 days for each and every offense.

Public Baths—Regulations Governing Use of. (Ord. June 20, 1912.)

That section 4 of ordinance No. 2066, entitled "An ordinance establishing public baths in the city of St. Paul, and providing for the regulation and maintenance thereof," be amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 4. Contagious diseased persons prohibited.—No person shall be permitted to use the baths who is afflicted with any contagious or loathsome disease, nor shall any person be permitted to use loud, abusive, indecent, or profane language in, at, or near the baths. No person while bathing at the public baths in said city shall swim or go beyond such limits as may be prescribed by the health department of said city. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $25."